

I – J

INSTALLATION COVERAGE - Covers building materials that will become a permanent part of the structure and the cost of labor involved in completing the installation. Also applies to materials while at the job site, while stored in temporary locations or while in transit between your primary business location and the job sites.

INSURED - The person or organization protected by an insurance company, which is specifically named and defined in the policy.

INSURED CONTRACT - A definition in a liability policy which describes the types of contracts in which liability can be assumed by the insured and can be included for coverage in the policy.
